NEWS RELEASE

On July 20, 2004, San Antonio Police responded to a burglary in progress call under case #04-449871. Upon officer's arrival, it was determined that a lone male forcibly entered the home and attempted to sexually assault a female complainant. The assault was unsuccessful and the suspect subsequently fled the home. Prior to leaving, the suspect fired several gunshots, however no one was hit.

After leaving the scene, the suspect is believed to have used the complainant's ATM card at a local bank. Video surveillance from the ATM machine shows what appears to be a White male in a White or Beige Ford truck.

The San Antonio Police Department is asking anyone who may recognize the suspect to please call detectives at 207-2313 or 207-7389. A compact disc containing the video can be picked up at the Public Information Office, 214 W. Nueva, San Antonio, Texas. (Surveillance photos from the video are attached below.)
